BROW DESIGN

TrueBrow Program - The TrueBrow Program is your route back to beautiful brows and is tailored to you depending on whether you're in need of correction, restoration, transformation, design or a mixture of them all. I understand that each brow is unique and the TrueBrow Program is the fastest way to brow beauty. No woman should have to wait for perfect brow confidence!

TrueBrow™ Discovery Session - Complimentary

During this appointment your brows will be assessed and I will discuss what is truly possible for your brows. I will show you my vision for your brows before starting any hair removal. Experience the knowledge, care and passion needed to restore, correct and transform your brow.

TrueBrow™ Initial Design $85

If your brows are being restored, this appointment will lay the foundation for the future of your brow. With meticulous care and vision I will transform your brows - this can take time and precision. During your TrueBrow Design, even the most compromised brows will experience a new level of beauty.

TrueBrow™ Maintenance $45 (recommended every 2-3 weeks)

The progress of your restoration/design will be reassessed at your maintenance appointments. This is not a re-design appointment but rather where your design or restoration will be maintained. For advanced restoration brow work, I will advise you on what timeframe is required. A TrueBrow Maintenance is a 2-3 weekly appointment and it's main purpose is to offer you the most beautiful brows every day of the year. Don't let messy, unkempt brows compromise your confidence.

TrueBrow™ Maintenance - Long $57 (4-5 weeks)

If you need to reschedule your regular appointment or can only make it every 4 weeks you will need to book a Long Maintenance appointment so I have more time to complete your maintenance. If it's been over 6 weeks between appointments you will need to book in for a TrueBrow Design appointment.

TrueBrow™ Collection (available to purchase in salon)

The TrueBrow System and TrueBrow Collection go hand-in-hand in creating brows that perfectly express you. You now have the power to choose a brand that loves the uniqueness of your natural brows. The beauty of soft, feminine brows everyday in an easy to use 2 step system.
